NOTICES

5 stars – whoopee. As a result of an unannounced inspection by the Council, our lunch club has been rated as excellent and awarded 5 stars. A great achievement and congratulations to the hard working team. Rector

Emmaus Group. Now is the time to sign up for this group starting at the end of the month. Do speak to Alan or the Rector for more information if you're considering Confirmation or you'd like to know more about your Christian Faith. Alan Rutter

Bible Reading Fellowship notes - I am about to renew our annual subscriptions so please let me know if you wish to renew your subscription by 7th Feb. It would also be useful to know if you wish to cancel your order. The notes give a daily bible reading which is quite short and a brief commentary. They are a good way to develop a regular bible reading habit and the different commentators give a variety of perspectives on the passages. The notes cost £12 for a year's subscription. If anyone would like to start taking the notes, please let me know. I have some old booklets if anyone would like to see what they offer. Sally Cairns (9414161)

IMPORTANT – The Restoration in the Church is due to continue for a couple of months. During this period, for safety reasons, vcthere will be no access to the Church unless authorised by the contractor. May I say again how enormously grateful I am for the hard work by so many people who cleared the Church and for the amount of work done in the Church Hall. Rector

TIN SUNDAY: Liz Curling and Coral Chiles will continue to collect for The Women's Centre (odd months) and Drop in Centre (even months) respectively on the FIRST Sunday of each month. Both centres are extremely grateful for all donations. Parishioners have asked what items were most needed and Liz and Coral have the answers. Women's Centre: tissues, washing-up liquid, antibacterial spray, tins of meat and toilet rolls. Drop in Centre: coffee, sugar and toilet rolls.
